DEFENDANT’S MEMORANDUM IN OPPOSITION TO PLAINTIFF’S MOTION FOR REFERRAL TO MEDIATION

Defendant Robert P. McCulloch, by and through counsel, opposes Plaintiff’s Motion for Referral to Mediation (Doc. 91). Defendant fundamentally disagrees with Plaintiff’s assessment that the parties may derive some benefit from mediating this case. To the contrary, a mediation here would not be meaningful and would serve only to further delay a final resolution in this matter.

The Missouri laws at issue in this lawsuit prohibit grand jurors from divulging certain information. These laws have been upheld by the Missouri trial court and appellate court that considered them. Grand Juror Doe v. Robert P. McCulloch, No. ED105181, 542 S.W.3d 354 (Mo.App. E.D. 2017). Defendant is simply not able to negotiate or enter into any agreement obviating these laws. Defendant, therefore, cannot participate in good faith in any mediation in this case.

Under Local Rule 6.01, cited in Plaintiff's motion, the Court may only refer "appropriate" civil cases to mediation. For the reasons stated above, this is not an "appropriate" case for mediation.

Defendant respectfully requests that the Court deny Plaintiff's Motion for Referral to Mediation.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSHUA D. HAWLEY,
Attorney General
